The Intake Intelligence Platform for Medical Practices

Introducing Intake Intelligence

Intake Intelligence is the discipline of interpreting, scoring, routing, and tracking every inquiry before the EHR, before scheduling, before clinical automation.

An Intake Intelligence Platform must:

• Understand the structure of the practice

• Evaluate viability

• Route across entities

• Track every inquiry to its final outcome

The Blind Spot No One Has Solved

Healthcare has optimized everything downstream — EHRs, scheduling tools, billing platforms, clinical automation. But the upstream intake layer remains fragmented, manual, and invisible.

- High-value patients never make it through

- Referrals disappear without explanation

- Critical decisions depend on individual staff interpretation

- Leaders have no visibility into leakage

- Multi-entity practices operate in silos

What Amirava Makes Possible

Amirava transforms intake from a chaotic inbox into a unified, intelligent system that:

- Interprets every inquiry
- Scores clinical and financial viability
- Routes cases across entities and service lines
- Tracks each patient through their pre-clinical journey
- Provides a visual interface that makes the entire intake journey instantly understandable at a glance
- Closes the loop with all stakeholders
- Surfaces leakage and lost opportunities

Built on the Four Pillars

Clarity
Structured, visible, actionable intake

Connection
Unified logic across entities and referrers

Confidence
Staff know what to do; leaders see what's happening

Core
Intake becomes a strategic asset

Where Amirava Fits

Intake Intelligence → EHR/Scheduling → Clinical Automation → Billing/RCM

Amirava ensures the right patients enter the system.
Downstream tools ensure they receive the right care once they're inside.
